   9. Certified Local Government

Albertson stated that staff continues to work on the Certified Local Government application. The resumes from the two new Commissioners have been received. All other resumes from the standing Commissioners were confirmed that they were all still current.

9. Other Business

Albertson stated that the four existing Commissioners were all up for reappointment. We do not want everyone’s terms expiring all at one time so we want to stagger the terms. Albertson stated that staff plans to appoint Phil Bus and Doris Sherer to one-year terms. Kurt Hagemann and Kyle Hohmann will have two-year terms. The two new Commissioners, Jennifer Faivre and Robert Krawczyk, will have three-year terms. Any reappointments after that would go back to three-year terms.

Chair Hohmann asked if we are still waiting on a seventh Commissioner at this time. Albertson answered that we are still waiting on a seventh Commissioner and no appointment has been made yet. There was no opposition from the Commission regarding the terms.

Faivre shared with the Committee an idea to help inspire historic building owners to keep up their buildings. There is the enforcement piece but there is also the inspire and celebrate piece. We could showcase what other property owners are doing with an end of the year report or some type of report during historic preservation week. The goal would be to inspire people and share resources. If we share who is doing a good job with historic preserves that would go a long way. We should inspire and celebrate beyond just enforce. Krawczyk suggested adding a historic preservation section to the City’s newsletter. Faivre stated that it would be a good idea to showcase the improvements that are being done.

Sherer discussed the banner that still hangs on the Batavia Academy of Dance that has been unapproved for two years. Albertson reported that the City has been to the Kane County Circuit Court and it was found that the Court could not order them to take the banner down. The business owner was fined but was not ordered to take the banner down. Albertson stated that he would discuss this matter again in his office to see if there are any alternatives that could be done regarding this banner. Hagemann suggested informing the owner of the façade grant. Albertson stated that the owner has been unresponsive and not communicating with the City.

Chair Hohmann suggested having discussions scheduled with historic building owners that have been on the Historic Preservation Commission (HPC) update list the longest. These discussions could be scheduled on the HPC agenda during the beginning of the year. Hohmann explained that he would like to understand the obstacles they are facing and see if the HPC and the City could help with the obstacles. He would like to understand the root cause of any inactivity. Albertson stated that timelines are important while working with historic property owners. Hagemann suggested having a process for inspections. He would prefer that once an inspection is done the property owner would then come to an inspection meeting with the HPC so that a timeline could be put in place and any discussion is placed on the record. Now it is more than just a letter being sent but rather a meeting in which they could see that the Commission is in support of them and willing to work with them to get the work completed. Hagemann stated that this would be a lot warmer approach than just sending a letter.

Chair Hohmann added that an admirable goal for 2020 would be to work with the property owners and see if we could get every property off this list next year and understand what they need and how we could help. There were no opposed to this goal.

Albertson announced that this would be the last meeting of 2019.

10. Adjournment
There being no other business to discuss, Chair Hohmann asked for a motion to adjourn the meeting at 5:59pm; Made by Bus; Seconded by Hagemann. Motion carried.

The applicant was not in attendance. The Commission reviewed the application. Albertson explained that the antennas would be placed in the steeple enclosure for a Verizon installation. The assembly elevations were viewed. Hohmann asked for clarification on what the new louvers would look like. He noted that there were two different illustrations and he did not know which were the new proposed louvers. Faivre stated that she would like to see a comparison of what is existing and what is proposed. She would also like to know whether or not these are illuminated.
Bus stated that in the past the agenda item has been continued if the applicant was not in attendance to answer Commission questions. There were no opposed to continuing the COA until the next meeting to have the applicant in attendance.

8. 16 East Wilson Street – Historic Inspection
9. Certified Local Government

Bus discussed the development and ongoing updates of the Historic Preservation Inspection Program list provided on each agenda. Albertson discussed the inspection of significant historic buildings in the downtown that started when the City lost two significantly historic buildings due to repair issues. The owners found it was too expensive to fix the buildings and they fell into disrepair. In order to prevent that from happening in the future, the City created the Historic Inspection program to inspect the buildings. The inspection is strictly exterior inspections to keep the building dry and in good shape. Workload has been a challenge to inspect additional buildings. The program has been created to work with the property owners and not go immediately into enforcement processes. Albertson discussed the grants the City offers, such as the façade grant program, with the HPC.

Buening discussed the Certified Local Government with the HPC. He summarized that the Certified Local Government is the way to get your municipality certified by the federal government as a local government who promotes and supports historic preservation. There are guidelines and parameters that needs to be met in order to become certified. Most of the application materials are ready to be submitted. Since there was a turnover in the Commission, staff felt it best to wait until the new members were signed on before continuing with the certification process. The letter of support from the Mayor needs to be updated since it was dated two years ago. The last things we have to do are the Commission appointments, resumes and the updated letter from the Mayor.

Buening asked the HPC about any concerns that the City has been heavy handed on enforcement issues. Buening stated that they have been trying to be very cooperative with business owners. Hohmann stated that when Mr. Marconi came in to address the HPC it was brought to our attention that when you have multiple properties the costs could add up quickly. It was a sense that in a situation like this a plan could be put into place to prioritize the improvements from our standpoint. Hohmann suggested prioritizing the improvements by placing what is most pressing at the top of the list versus having a list of improvements needed in no particular order. Hohmann continued that we could possibly work with property owners to help prioritize items on the list and set a timeline that would be acceptable. Buening stated that if someone owns several buildings you are still responsible for maintaining the buildings no matter how many buildings one owns. He would be real cautious on that type of argument regarding multiple properties. Buening gave the example that if he owns seven houses that does not mean he does not have to mow the grass on two of his houses. If you own a property you have to maintain it. Buening stated that staff has been working with Mr. Marconi for years. The items on his list did not appear all at once and accumulated over time. Albertson stated that staff is willing to work with property owners with the hope to have a timeline on when items will be fixed. Buening added that having a three-year plan would be acceptable. Sherer stated that there is an item on the list that has been on there since 2010. She stated that there needs to be a timeline established so these things can get done. Nine years to get something done is a little long. Buening stated that they are trying to balance being business friendly and not being heavy handed.

8. Other Business
Bus reported that he and Sherer would serve as the nominating committee for the new Chair and Vice-Chair of the HPC. He asked if everyone would still like to serve on the Commission and all present said that they would. Bus stated that he and Sherer would return with their nominations at the December 9th HPC meeting.

Jennifer Faivre shared how she moved to Batavia in 2012 and her experience with historic preservation in her career. Faivre discussed her passion for kit homes and kit homes in our community. She did a Sears kit home presentation last April and identified twenty-two Sears kit homes in our community. She would love to continue to research other kit homes in our community. There are seven different companies that provided kit homes during the kit home boom.

Buening discussed the Downtown Planning Project and Streetscape Plan with the Commission. He stated that downtown planning was not in the 2019 budget and there is going to be a new Economic Development staff member in 2020 that should be part of this discussion once Chris Aiston retires. There will be a subcommittee of Council members looking at the 2000 plan and see if there are things that could be changed or implemented. The 2020 budget has been very tight and no downtown planning was budgeted. Buening stated that he does anticipate strategic planning being done in the future but it probably will not be done in the next calendar year. He does anticipate that the HPC would have representation in the planning process.

9. Adjournment
There being no other business to discuss, Commissioner Bus asked for a motion to adjourn the meeting at 6:28pm; Made by Hohmann; Seconded by Sherer. Motion carried.
Minutes respectfully submitted by Jennifer Austin-Smith, Recording Secretary, on December 30, 2019.

HPC discussion on plaquing.

May 11, 2015

Discussion: New Landmark or New District procedure Bus stated that we have discussed expanding or creating additional Historic Districts. He noted that several homeowners on the Batavia House Walk would like to have their house landmarked.

Albertson gave a history on the procedure and the Commission’s ability to establish a landmark property and a Historic District. Bus suggested adding these details to the website as well as stating who the HPC are and what the HPC does. Foster offered to write something up and would like to create a brochure that would let people know what the Historic District is and inform people on our architecture. Foster stated that it would be nice to have something to give our residents. Bus and Sherer stated that they would join Foster with those efforts.

Foster encouraged the Commission to become members of the Batavia Historical Society. Bus added that membership should be pursued by aldermen and the Mayor as well.

Bus commented that we should consider a plaque program on our historic buildings.

March 23, 2015

Bus stated that the Commission should continue discussion on residential units outside of the Historic District to be considered for historic landmarks. He commented that the Commission does not want to get too overbearing on property owners and property rights. However, there are some people who would like to get their homes landmarked. Albertson stated that if you have multiple properties you could create another Historic District. If it is an individual property you could landmark it.

Batavia Historical Society and Batavia Public Library have formed a Committee and below are our first thoughts on what we want to accomplish.

- Distinguish Historic Landmarks / Historic Districts from Plaques for Historic Structures and Markers for Historic Sites
- Role of Historic Preservation Commission (City of Batavia)
- Role of Batavia Historical Society
- Project Focus #1: Plaques for Historic Structures
- Project Focus #2: Markers for Historic Sites - Note: It is likely that such markers would require City / Historic Preservation Commission approval.
- Goals
- Role of Task Force
